PREFATORY NOTE.

To this volume is appended a List of Works on Angling, Fish, and Fisheries, which supplements the Bibliotheca Piscatoria published in 1883 by Mr. T. Satchell. We must thank the Hon. D. B. Fearing, of Newport, R.I., U.S.A., for the loan of his catalogue of angling books, from which many of the entries in this list were obtained.

The names and complete addresses of publishers will be found at the end of this volume. Under the book titles the names of the publishers are given in brief: 'Low,' for instance, instead of the 17 words and two letters which will be found at the foot of the title-page of this book. If the office of a publishing firm is not in London, the name of the town is placed between parentheses before the publisher's name, thus: '(Oxford) BLACKWELL.' Then the publisher's name, the word 'publisher,' and the name of the town usually make address enough to find him.

For the first time we have added a List of the principal publishers in the United States. It will be found following the names of those in the United Kingdom.

Collections, Libraries, and Series of books will be found grouped under the heading Series. Publications issued by Learned Societies should be sought for under the heading Transactions. We regret that some publishers and secretaries of societies did not reply to our circular in time to allow us to include their information in this volume, but it will appear eventually in Vol. VI. of the English Catalogue of Books.

To those many publishers and secretaries who by kind and prompt replies have assisted us to complete this list of English books published in 1900 we tender hearty thanks. We have especially to express our obligation to Mr. W. K. FORTESCUE (compiler of a Subject Index to Modern Works), and to many bibliographers and authors who have sent additions or corrections.

Should any of our readers notice the absence of a title which ought to have appeared in this volume, or know of the publication of a work which will not 'be subscribed to the trade in the usual way,' or for any other reason is likely to escape our next volume, we shall be much obliged if he will send copy of title, giving name of author, price of book, name of publisher, and month and year of publication, to Catalogue Dept.,

S. LOW, MARSTON & CO., LTD.,

St. Dunstan's House, Fetter Lane, E.C.

The names and addresses of PUBLISHERS are given at the end of this volume.

THE following List of Works on Angling, Fish, and Fisheries has been compiled from various sources, and includes all the more important works published since the appearance of The Bibliotheca Piscatoria in 1883, as well as particulars of some works previously published not mentioned in that work. For many of the entries I am indebted to an American angler and subscriber to the Fishing Gazette, the Hon. D. B. Fearing, of Newport, R.I., U.S.A. I shall be greatly obliged to collectors of angling books and others who will send me a note of any corrections in, or omissions from, this list which they may notice. They should be addressed to R. SPECIAL OFFER.

Indispensable to Every Library.

The Publishers of the English Catalogue have decided to offer to Readers of the PUBLISHERS' CIRCULAR, for a limited period only, the following volumes of the English Catalogue at a greatly reduced price :—

Vol. 3.—1872-1880	-	-	published at 42s.
Index Vol. 3.—1874-1880			„ „ 18s.
Vol. 4.—1881-1889	-	-	„ „ 52s. 6d.
Index Vol. 4.—1881-1889			„ „ 31s. 6d.
Vol. 5.—1890-1897	-	-	„ „ 84s. net.

N.B.—Vol. 5 is classified in one alphabet, and therefore requires no Index Volume.

Here are five volumes in all, the published prices of which, as can be seen, amounted to a sum of £11. 8s.

THESE ARE NOW OFFERED AT FOUR GUINEAS NET THE SET OF FIVE VOLUMES.

WHAT THE OFFER MEANS.

Vol. 5, until to-day, could only be obtained for £4. 4s.; an expenditure of the same sum will now give you four additional volumes—the five all bound in half leather. We make a present, that is to say, of four books published at 42s., 52s. 6d., 18s. and 31s. 6d. respectively.

WHY THE OFFER SHOULD BE ACCEPTED.

Because it is a chance that will never occur again. We cannot offer Vols. 1 and 2 because they are out of print. Vol. 3 is getting low, and the time must come, sooner or later, when Vols. 4 and 5 will get scarce. They will not be reprinted.

Those who have already purchased Vol. 5 and are in want of the preceding Two Volumes and Indexes can be supplied with them for Two Guineas Net Cash—otherwise the offer for the set cannot be broken.

The ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA can be reprinted.
The ENGLISH CATALOGUE cannot.

Those persons who are fortunate enough to possess the Five Volumes of the English Catalogue and Index Volumes can find the title, author's name, and published price of any book published from 1835 to 1897. 300,000 books were published during those sixty years.

We cannot offer you the five complete volumes, but we do offer you the last three and two Index Volumes, which give you the books published from 1872 to 1897; but the available sets are few, and you must order quickly on the following or similar Order Form:—

The Letterpress contains a sketch of British Naval History, 1588–1900, based on the list of 112 naval events as printed on the map. The position of each engagement is shown on the map by a number, and in the text the description of the event will be found under the same number, so that any naval engagement can be quickly localised, and its description easily found.

In the second chapter will be found an account of the British Empire, in which the position and the importance of our various Colonies are described. A brief sketch of their history and of the method of administration is also given.
